LETTER OF APPRECIATION

Date: 23rd April 2026

To Whom It May Concern,

This is to certify that Mr. Ayush Vishwakarma (Enrolment No: 2203051050113), a student of Parul Institute of Technology, Parul University, Vadodara, Gujarat, successfully completed an internship at the Centre for Tribal Technology Development (CTTD), Sardar Vallabhbhai National Institute of Technology (SVNIT), Surat, India, from January 23, 2026 to April 23, 2026.

During this period, he served as a Data Analyst Intern and contributed to a data-driven research project focused on long-term trends in agriculture, animal husbandry, and forestry sectors of Surat district, India.

Key Contributions and Responsibilities:

- Performed data cleaning, preprocessing, and validation of multi-decade datasets (1970–2024) sourced from publicly available government records.
- Conducted time-series and comparative data analysis to identify trends in livestock population, agricultural production, irrigation of land, and forest resources.
- Developed data visualizations and structured analytical reports to present insights clearly and effectively.
- Analyzed sectoral transformations influenced by policy changes, industrialization, and environmental factors.
- Identified key insights including growth patterns in dairy production, land-use changes, and infrastructure gaps in rural systems.

Mr. Ayush Vishwakarma demonstrated strong analytical abilities, attention to detail, and a methodical approach to problem-solving. He consistently met deadlines, showed initiative in his work, and maintained a professional and collaborative attitude throughout the internship.

This letter serves as an official record of his internship experience for professional and employment purposes.

We wish him continued success in his future academic and professional endeavours.
